Reference: I Corinthians 3:1-2

TWO is _____ criticism
This criticism is intended to inflict emotional _____ onto someone.

Question: How is someone able to determine if the criticism is constructive or destructive in nature?

Answer: The answer to this question is found in two distinct parts.

Part one is to consider the _____ Reference: Proverbs 27:5 and 6

verse five, “Open rebuke (criticism) is better than love carefully concealed.” verse six, “Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.”

Solomon uses the term “wounds” to describe the results from someone’s criticism. Someone said that there are four times when criticism hurts the most.

- Criticism hurts when it comes from someone in a _____.
- Criticism hurts when it questions our _____.

- Criticism hurts when it comes from people that have _____ for a long time.
- Criticism hurts when it is _____.

“What a blessing...an inestimable blessing is it to have a faithful friend! Satan is ready enough to point out whatever good we have; but it is only a faithful friend that will screen that from our sight, and show us our _____.” Henry Venn

Part two is to consider the _____ Proverbs chapter one describes someone that reacts to (not responds to) criticism, and if we are careful not to repeat these four wrongful reactions, then we can learn to benefit from criticism.

- I. is to be _____ verse twenty-four a, “Because I (wisdom) have called and you refused.”

This word “refused” in the original Hebrew language is most often used in the Old Testament to mean a refusal to _____ to authority.

Reference: I Samuel 15:23, “For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the Word of the LORD...”

- II. is to be _____ verse twenty-four b, “I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded.”
- III. is to be _____ verse twenty-five a, “Because you disdained all my counsel...”
- IV. is to be _____ verse twenty-five b, “and would have none of my rebuke (criticism).”
