

Christ in the Old Testament – Part 1

Christ in the Garden

Reference: Genesis 3

Tony Keating

References: Luke 24:13-27, 30-31; Matthew 12:40; 2 Corinthians 3:15-16; Daniel 3:25; (see screen)

verse one (see screen)

Question: How does a snake _____?

Answer: 3 possible answers

1. Adam and Eve simply were not surprised that a snake was talking due to their _____.
2. This creature was some sort of _____.
3. There were lots of talking animals in the _____-_____ world.

Reference: Isaiah 11:6-8 (see screen)

verse eight (see screen)

Question: How does a snake _____?

Answer: He _____ God. In other words, this serpent tempts us to _____.
verses two through five (see screen)

The adversary speaks in _____-_____.

The serpent wants to _____ the authority of Adam and Eve so that he can be in charge on Earth.

verse six (see screen)

How temptation often works:

- It often starts with the _____.
verse six through eight (see screen)

Reference: Job 1:7 (see screen)

The Trinity: God is _____ unified Lord, yet He simultaneously exists as _____ persons. Those three persons of the Godhead are Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We can be safe identifying God walking on this Earth with real human legs as the Lord _____, just as He did when He was born of a virgin and learned to walk just like any other human child.

Anytime you see God in human form in the Old Testament—that is _____!

verse nine (see screen)

Principle: Even now, that Adam is caught in sin, the _____ love of the Lord Jesus Christ shines through.

Jesus remains true to His shepherding nature.

verses ten through fifteen (see screen)