

GOAL SETTING - Part I
Reference: Genesis 24:1-66
Pastor Larry Webb

In Genesis chapter twenty-four, there is a biblical model we can use to help us both establish and reach our personal goals.

Principle One... evaluate our _____
Read Genesis 24:1-4 (see screen)

One reason people tend to ignore the need for self-evaluation is a misunderstanding of contentment.

Reference: Philippians 4:10-13 (see screen)

Reference: Hebrews 13:5, 6 (see screen)

Misunderstanding contentment means our desires should be limited to what we _____ have.

Reference: Matthew 25:14-30 (see screen)

Understanding contentment means our desires should be limited to what we are convinced _____ us to have.

Someone personalized biblical contentment through four statements:

I am satisfied _____ with what God has given me.

This satisfaction today is not a guarantee that God intends me to be satisfied _____ with the same things.

I want my desires limited _____ to that which God wants me to have.

I want my desires _____ if need be, to that which I am convinced God wants me to have.

Reference: I Chronicles 4:9, 10 (see screen)

GOAL SETTING - Part I
Reference: Genesis 24:1-66
Pastor Larry Webb

In Genesis chapter twenty-four, there is a biblical model we can use to help us both establish and reach our personal goals.

Principle One... evaluate our _____
Read Genesis 24:1-4 (see screen)

One reason people tend to ignore the need for self-evaluation is a misunderstanding of contentment.

Reference: Philippians 4:10-13 (see screen)

Reference: Hebrews 13:5, 6 (see screen)

Misunderstanding contentment means our desires should be limited to what we _____ have.

Reference: Matthew 25:14-30 (see screen)

Understanding contentment means our desires should be limited to what we are convinced _____ us to have.

Someone personalized biblical contentment through four statements:

I am satisfied _____ with what God has given me.

This satisfaction today is not a guarantee that God intends me to be satisfied _____ with the same things.

I want my desires limited _____ to that which God wants me to have.

I want my desires _____ if need be, to that which I am convinced God wants me to have.

Reference: I Chronicles 4:9, 10 (see screen)