

COMPONENTS TO FAITH – Part I
Reference: miscellaneous Scripture
Pastor Larry Webb

The word in the original Greek language translated as faith is “pistis”. That word means “to believe in, to _____, to put confidence in”. But there are different components that together form a more complete definition to faith and these are some of those components.

ONE is the _____ component.

Reference: John 21:1-6 (see screen)

- obedience results in _____
- disobedience results in _____

References: Proverbs 11:14, 20:18 (see screen)

TWO is the _____ component.

Reference: Matthew 17:14-20 (see screen)

verse twenty is sometimes misunderstood.

- this is _____ a reference to moving actual mountains.
- it _____ faith as small as a mustard seed that moves mountains.

THREE is the _____ component.

The ancient Israelites recognized risk and sometimes dared to believe God in spite of that risk.

Reference: Hebrews 11:29-30 (see screen)

Reference: Exodus 14:21-29 (see screen)

COMPONENTS TO FAITH – Part I
Reference: miscellaneous Scripture
Pastor Larry Webb

The word in the original Greek language translated as faith is “pistis”. That word means “to believe in, to _____, to put confidence in”. But there are different components that together form a more complete definition to faith and these are some of those components.

ONE is the _____ component.

Reference: John 21:1-6 (see screen)

- obedience results in _____
- disobedience results in _____

References: Proverbs 11:14, 20:18 (see screen)

TWO is the _____ component.

Reference: Matthew 17:14-20 (see screen)

verse twenty is sometimes misunderstood.

- this is _____ a reference to moving actual mountains.
- it _____ faith as small as a mustard seed that moves mountains.

THREE is the _____ component.

The ancient Israelites recognized risk and sometimes dared to believe God in spite of that risk.

Reference: Hebrews 11:29-30 (see screen)

Reference: Exodus 14:21-29 (see screen)