Definition: Admonishment is an act or action of counsel, _____ or _____.

Admonishment comes in two basic forms:

One is _____ admonishment.
Reference: I Corinthians 10:1-11; Acts 20:28-31 (see screen)

Two is _____ admonishment.
Reference: I Peter 4:8; I Samuel 13:13-14 (see screen)

In the case of restoring someone we have two options:

One... We can _____ that person.

Two... We can let _____ cover it.
Reference: I Peter 4:8 (see screen)

Paul tells us who is qualified to admonish someone. Paul said that it is the person that meets at least two specific conditions:

The first condition is a _____.
Reference: Galatians 6:1; I Corinthians 4:14-15 (see screen)

The second condition is _____.

- adequate knowledge of the _____ that relates to the problem
- adequate knowledge of the actual _____ itself
Reference: Proverbs 18:13 (see screen)
