

ESTHER Part VIII

Reference: Esther 7:1-10

Pastor Larry Webb

Definition: Poetic justice is a literary device where a good deed is honored and a bad deed is punished through an ironic _____ of _____ that is related to the character's own conduct.

The Big Idea from Esther chapter seven is "What _____ around _____ around" meaning someone's actions, good or bad, will ultimately have consequences for that person.

It's important not to confuse this principle with the eastern concept of karma.

Definition: Karma implies that all that someone does good or bad counts in _____ how that person is re-born (reincarnated) into his next existence.

Scripture categorically rejects karma and reincarnation.

Reference: Hebrews 9:27, "And it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment"

Hebrews 9:27 emphasizes two things:

- In a biological sense humans are only _____ once and only _____ once.
- Divine judgement after death means there is no _____ as reincarnation and karma teach.

Karma doesn't exist but cause and effect do exist. Our actions good or bad ultimately have consequences during this lifetime and that fact is repeated throughout Scripture.

Reference: Job 4:8, Obadiah 1:15, Proverbs 26:27, Matthew 26:52, Galatians 6:7 and Proverbs 11:25 (see screen)

ESTHER Part VIII

Reference: Esther 7:1-10

Pastor Larry Webb

Definition: Poetic justice is a literary device where a good deed is honored and a bad deed is punished through an ironic _____ of _____ that is related to the character's own conduct.

The Big Idea from Esther chapter seven is "What _____ around _____ around" meaning someone's actions, good or bad, will ultimately have consequences for that person.

It's important not to confuse this principle with the eastern concept of karma.

Definition: Karma implies that all that someone does good or bad counts in _____ how that person is re-born (reincarnated) into his next existence.

Scripture categorically rejects karma and reincarnation.

Reference: Hebrews 9:27, "And it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment"

Hebrews 9:27 emphasizes two things:

- In a biological sense humans are only _____ once and only _____ once.
- Divine judgement after death means there is no _____ as reincarnation and karma teach.

Karma doesn't exist but cause and effect do exist. Our actions good or bad ultimately have consequences during this lifetime and that fact is repeated throughout Scripture.

Reference: Job 4:8, Obadiah 1:15, Proverbs 26:27, Matthew 26:52, Galatians 6:7 and Proverbs 11:25 (see screen)